

What We Do

Alianza Americas works with civil society partners, government agencies, and communities of faith and organized labor, to shape and influence public policies that promote social, political and economic justice across the Americas. Alianza Americas serves as a platform for shared ideas, analysis, and to create solutions for change.

Our Issue Areas

Economic, Racial and Social Justice

Common Sense and Humane Migration Policies

Transnational Civic Engagement and Participation

Protection for Children and Families Across Borders

Alianza Americas represents a critical voice on issues that have an impact on the lives of immigrants and all families throughout the Americas. Its forty-five organizational members represent more than 100,000 families across 12 states in the United States.

Alianza Americas combines its deep community roots and highly respected transnational experience with its advocacy policy work to protect the dignity and promote the well-being of all people across the Americas.

Who We Are

Alianza Americas is a network of organizations working with Latin American migrant communities in the United States. Alianza Americas is also a convener to a broad range of migrant and non-migrant leaders across the Americas. It is the only national organization in the U.S. that is rooted in Latino immigrant communities and works transnationally to create an inclusive, equitable, and sustainable way of life. Alianza Americas is a leading voice on issues and challenges affecting migrants and Latinos in the U.S. and in their countries of origin.

How We Do It

Educational Delegations

Convening advocates and influencers to learn about, analyze and report on the real concerns and conflicts affecting the lives of people in the US, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean.

Network Advocacy

Working together to develop and implement collaborative solutions to the economic, social and political issues and policies that impact migrants in the Americas.

Action-Driven Diplomacy Strategies

Providing analysis, policy solutions and recommendations to resolve local, national and transnational challenges.

Leadership Institute

Delivering capacity training, sharing best practices, and providing top quality analysis to strengthen the performance of migrant advocacy and community organizations.
